	Hyacinthus Orientalis (Jan Bos) This award-winning, rosy-red heirloom is the best early 'red' forcer. It's fragrance is so intoxicating that they've been called "nature's perfume." Like most perennial bulbs, they're easy to grow and come back year after year! 8-12".	9
	Byzantinus Gladiolus Graceful, hardy heirloom variety. The tiny, cerise to magenta blooms on this perennial look more like orchids than glads. A sturdy plant, its stems do not need staking. Unlike most gladioli, you plant this gem in the fall. 20-24"	26
	Dutch Iris (Picasso) Rich purple blooms with heavily veined, bright gold falls, rise from clumps of strap-like foliage. 20"	18
	Fosteriana Tulips (Juan) Plants are one of the biggest and long-lasting of the bulbs. Can be raised in an apartment - little care. 12-18"	13
	Jonquil (Hillstar) 2-3 flowers on each stem. The flowers are 2 3/4 inches wide with bright yellow petals that blend into white at the base. 14-16"	SOLD OUT
	Double Daffodil (Delnashaugh) Simply the best double pink daffodil that we have ever seen. Fluffy, peach-pink, ruffled double centres are highlighted by a snow-white perianth. Dappled shade. 20"	9
	Miniature Daffodil (Rip Van Winkle) These bright yellow blooms are fantastic for ground cover! They last for many weeks and naturalize very well! 6"	SOLD OUT
